

Superior. You deserve it. We deliver it.

Ask Superior Supply & Steel management about customer service, and you'll hear just how crucial it is at Superior from Steve Mitchell, President: "Customer service? It's always been foremost in our philosophy. Just look at the mission statement we used in the very beginning, over 25 years ago...Quality with a personal touch."

Then from Executive Vice President Wayne LeBert:

SUPERIOR CUSTOMER SERVICE

"And the only way we could consistently deliver that personal attention was to do it with Superior equipment and Superior employees."

And from Plate Division Vice President

Scott Sandifer: "So Superior today maintains its own fleet of over 100 trucks and works to make sure all Superior locations are manned

by

Superior

employees. It gives us more control over plate loading, travel and delivery times."

Mitchell adds: "Our Service

Centers carry a full line of structural steel products. Now couple that with the fact that there's someone on call 24/7...it's making sure customers always get the products they need when they need them. That's Superior customer service.

"Whether we're talking product range, customers service, or locations, it's all Superior...we take our name very seriously."
